

Sidney Stringer
Primary

Science Principles

We know Science is good at Sidney Stringer Primary when...

- Children have the opportunity to engage in practical real life experiences
- Children are allowed to discover the answers to their questions through investigation
- A thematic approach to learning is used
- The curriculum is knowledge based
- Discrete science skills are taught
- Elements of 'Working Scientifically' are taught in all lessons.
- Children learn specific science vocabulary.